##Scripts readme

##First filter vcf files of species of interest against reference of interest and genotype of interest with as many control genotypes as available using FilterIntro.py.

##Second run MapIntro.py to select those SNPs that are diagnostic in the species of interest and are unique in the genotype of interest relative to the control genotypes