TMJ-2015-0069.R1 - Strategies to maximize data collection response rates in an RCT focused on children with medical complexity

Dear Karen,

Dr. Finkelstein is in need of official permission to use Figure #1 from the above published manuscript in a paper he is submitting to another journal, not a Mary Ann Liebert publication.

Here are the publication details.

Volume 22 issue 4
April 2016

DOI: 10.1089/tmj.2015.0069

Please, contact him at your earliest convenience. I have copied him on this email, so he is aware of our communication.

Thank you.

Patricia
