Supplementary Figure 5. Residual plots corresponding to the model fit in Figure 4. Each row corresponds to one observed variable. The left column displays residuals divided by the estimated σ for each variable, and over sampling times. The right column shows the corresponding histograms for the residuals, collected over all sampling points.