Supplementary Figure 1: ROIs used for white matter regressors (red) and CSF regressors (red) on the MNI template. Regressors were chosen such that they were deep within the white matter and CSF and therefore unlikely to overlap with gray matter signal in any participants.