Fig. S3. The probability of the diversity contrast test with declining numbers of contrasts used. The data are the distribution of P values from 1000 random samples taken from the full data set of 25 contrasts.