

Appendix S2 – Shows correlation coefficient (r^2) matrix of landcover variables (quantified using a 10-km radius) hypothesized to explain wolverine occurrence in the south-central region of the Canadian Rocky Mountains.

