

Supplementary Figure 2

RA treatment reduces albuminuria in NTS-injected mice. Coomassie blue-stained gel of 2 μ l of urine samples collected 7 days post PBS or NTS injection (2 mice per group) shows significant decrease in albumin in RA-treated mice. MW, molecular weight markers in kDa are shown on the left; albumin standards in increasing concentrations are shown on the right .