

Supplementary Figure S1. Growth trajectories of the KNC from hatch to 20 weeks of ages (including both sex), each black lines represent the individual growth of male and female in the population and where white line indicates the average growth in the population.