

Additional figure 1: Overview of the equine IBD suspected study population, classified by OGTT result (either normal: left panel, or abnormal: right panel), depicting enteral biopsy results (either duodenal (top panel) or rectal (middle panel) and rectal palpation results (bottom panel). In the left and right upper corner colour codes are depicted for classification of respectively enteral biopsy (left panel) and rectal palpation (right panel).