

S1 - Location of the 16 rivers used in the study. Dark dots denote populations with high heterogeneity in predator biomass, whereas light grey dots represent populations with low predator biomass heterogeneity.

