

Figure S1: Study population selection from the US Renal Data System. We identified a cohort of adult patients who received their first kidney transplant between 1990 and 2011 whose primary payer was Medicaid. *Unmatched transplant dates are patients whose transplant dates were inconsistent between the patient and the transplant files of the dataset.

