

Figure S2. Quantification of the fMRI activations for the medial aspect of visual cortex. An example of manual extraction of the medial visual cortex clusters of activations for four LCA2 patients. Each case presented in sections A, B, and C demonstrate different patterns of activation distribution within the medial surface of the visual cortex for four LCA2 patients.