Figure S5. Relationships between the MO values and students' RTs to different font colors. The results from Pearson's correlation analysis revealed that there was no difference in the relationship between the MO values and students' RTs to different font colors. Different colors of open circles represent four different font colors (magenta, blue, red and green) used in the task.