

Figure S1: Heat map of normalized metabolite values. Positive values are shown in shades of red while shades of blue represent negative values. Metabolites are grouped according to enriched super-pathways (Energy, Nucleotide, and Amino Acid). Metabolites assigned to Other Pathways represent metabolites that are significantly different between low-risk and intermediate/high-risk PE groups but the pathways these are assigned to were not enriched.

