

Supplemental Figure S1.

Taxonomic composition in the analysed cohorts. Each panel shows the first two principal coordinates based on Bray-Curtis distances, with the background on the panel coloured by distance-weighted interpolated values of age and the abundances of the three most abundant bacterial classes: light blue indicating low values and purple high values.