

Data Supplement S1: Faculty Survey Predicting Resident Burnout

Please refer to the provided definition of burnout in the following question.

Burnout is a syndrome of (1) emotional exhaustion; (2) depersonalization; and (3) reduced personal accomplishment.

- 1) Emotional exhaustion: feeling no longer able to give of oneself at a psychological level
- 2) Depersonalization: negative, cynical attitudes and feelings about one's patients
- 3) Reduced personal accomplishment: tendency to evaluate oneself negatively, particularly with regard to patient care

In your overall experience working with the following resident, XXX, does he/she exhibit signs of burnout?

- Yes
- No
- Not enough time with the resident to determine

Demographics

Gender:

- Male
- Female

Number of years in practice since completion of residency: _____

Average number of clinical hours worked per month: _____