

Note. Evaluation of a participant’s measured weekly gestational weight gain (GWG) is plotted and compared against the Institute of Medicine (IOM)-determined amount of suggested weight gain based on her pre-pregnancy weight status [1], and decisions to adapt the intervention are made based on whether the participants is meeting or exceeding the goal (i.e., weight within the lower and upper IOM weight range).