

Supplemental Figure 1. Representative sMRI spectra from normal and tumor tissue from patient in Figure 3. The spectroscopic technique used gives chemical shift data with SNR of  $\sim 40$ , on average. SNR is calculated as the mean area under the NAA peak divided by the peak-to-peak noise.