

Supplementary Data

CCAS EXPERT SUMMIT: From Care to Cure— Shifting the HIV Paradigm

Almond Beach Hotel, St. Peter, Barbados

August 27–31, 2017

Sunday August 27, 2017

Opening Ceremony

Master of Ceremonies: Vera Layne, President, Caribbean
Cytometry & Analytical Society (CCAS)

6:30 pm: National Anthem of Barbados

6:35 pm: Opening Prayer

6:40 pm: Welcome: Clive Landis, Chairman, CCAS, Barbados

6:50 pm: Greetings: Barbados Ministry of Health—Anton Best

7:00 pm: Remarks: UNAIDS Latin America and the Caribbean—Cesar Nunez

7:10 pm: CCAS DISTINGUISHED LECTURE: Social and economic vulnerability of women: a nexus of risk—
Deanna Kerrigan, Baltimore, USA

7:50 pm: Vote of Thanks: Valerie Wilson, Caribbean
MedLabs Foundation

8:00 pm: Entertainment/cocktails

Monday August 28, 2017

Expert Summit Session 1

Chair: Clive Landis

8:30 am: A bumpy journey: from lipodystrophy to PrEP—
Réjean Thomas, Montreal, Canada

9:15 am: CD4: a marker in time—George Janossy, London, United Kingdom

Coffee break 10:00–10:30 am

Expert Summit Session 2

Chair: Eric van Gorp

10:30 am: An explosion of technology innovation ... driven from the South—Phil McCoy, NIH, USA

11:15 am: Quality diagnostics at the point of care—Bharat
Parekh, CDC, USA

Lunch 12:00–1:00 pm

Expert Summit Session 3

Chair: Réjean Thomas

1:00 pm: Treatment as prevention: is anyone watching?—
Thomas Quinn, Baltimore, USA

1:45 pm: Treatment as prevention a decade later: “The scientific discovery of the year”—Sten Vermund, Nashville, USA

Tea break 2:30–3:00 am

Expert Summit Session 4

Chair: George Janossy

3:00 pm: A generation of children without HIV: dream or reality?—Mo O’Gorman, Los Angeles, USA

3:45 pm: An opportunity to recast the HIV message on stigma and discrimination: the self-interest theory—Clive Landis, The University of the West Indies, Barbados

Tuesday August 29, 2017

Expert Summit Session 5

Chair: Mo O’Gorman

8:30 am: Mind over matter: challenges in neurocognition—
Kevin Robertson, Chapel Hill, USA

9:15 am: Against all odds: Haiti leads the way—Patrice
Joseph, Port-au-Prince, Haiti

Coffee break 10:00–10:30 am

Expert Summit Session 6

Chair: Patrice Joseph

10:30 am: Achieving the 90-90-90 targets in Latin America and the Caribbean progress and challenges—Cesar Núñez, UNAIDS

11:15 am: Stigma, the greatest hurdle to ending AIDS—
Alexander Pastoors, Dutch Association of PLHIV, The Netherlands

Lunch 12:00–1:00 pm

Expert Summit Session 7

Chair: Thomas Quinn

1:00 pm: Ten-year retrospective on HIV capacity building in the Caribbean—Valerie Wilson, Trinidad

1:45 pm: What is the point? A cure without access—
Edward Greene, United Nations

Tea break 2:30–3:00 pm

Expert Summit Session 8

Chair: Sten Vermund

3:00 pm: Care versus cure: different pathways for zika and HIV—Eric van Gorp, Rotterdam, Holland

3:45 pm: From care to cure: has the paradigm shifted?—
Akin Abayomi, Cape Town, South Africa

5:00 pm End of Day 2

Wednesday August 30, 2017

Caribbean Country Reports

Chair: Valerie Wilson

8.30–10.00 am

Coffee break 10:00–10:30 am

Caribbean country reports ... continued

Chair: Valerie Wilson

10.30–12.00 am

Lunch 12:00–1:00 pm

Research in the Caribbean

Chair: Eddie Greene

1:00 pm: A Single Thread—Jamonn Roberts, Revolt Visuals, Barbados

1:30 pm NCDs in PLHIV, their Care and Treatment: a Public Health Concern—Carmeta Doughlin, The University of the West Indies, Barbados

2:00 pm: The Barbados Aging with HIV Study—Damani
Piggott, Johns Hopkins University, Maryland

Tea Break 2:30–3:00 pm

3:00: Industry sponsored talks (not part of CME program):

Chair: Phil McCoy

Alere

Beckton Dickinson

Beckman Coulter

Roche—“The Challenges You Face Evolve. So Stay One Step Ahead”

Ryvex—“Accurate Results to treat opportunistic infections”
Sismex

4:30 pm: End of Day 3

Thursday August 31, 2017

Plenary Session: Violence and vulnerability of women in the Caribbean

Chair: Kevin Robertson

8:30 am: “Governing” violence: language, “colonial” gender, and change—Hamilah DeShong, The University of the West Indies, Barbados

9:00 am: The personal experiences and opinions of the girls from the Government Industrial School of Barbados: a qualitative study—Jacoline Bergman, Rotterdam University, The Netherlands

9:30 am: Correlates of sex work stigma among female sex workers living with HIV in the Dominican Republic—Tahilin Karver, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, Maryland

Coffee break 10:00–10:30 am

Plenary Session: Research in Latin America and the Caribbean

Chair: Brendan Bain

10:30 am: Guyana key population size estimation validation—Nastassia Rambarran, Society against sexual orientation discrimination, Guyana

11:00 am: Urbanization, the Built Environment, and the Sexual Geography of HIV/AIDS—Paul Burns, Washington

11:30 am: Adapting a multilevel intervention to promote HIV prevention, care, and treatment outcomes for Transgender women sex workers in the Dominican Republic—Martha Perez, Unidad de Vacunas e Investigacion at Instituto Dermatologico y Cirugia de Piel, Dominican Republic

Lunch 12:00–1:00 pm

Plenary Session: Research in Latin America and the Caribbean, continued

Chair: Akin Abayomi

1:00 pm: Integrating substance use support and referral into a multilevel intervention for female sex workers living with HIV in the Dominican Republic—Hoisex Gomez, Unidad de Vacunas e Investigacion at Instituto Dermatologico y Cirugia de Piel, Dominican Republic

1:30 pm: “Son unas perras, eso es lo que dicen”: a qualitative study of sex work stigma among women living with HIV in the Dominican Republic—Clare Barrington, University of North Carolina

2:00 pm: Abriendo Puertas: Scaling up a multilevel intervention for female sex workers living with HIV in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic—Yeycy Donastorg, Unidad de Vacunas e Investigacion at Instituto Dermatologico y Cirugia de Piel, Dominican Republic

Tea break 2:30–3:00 pm

3:00 pm: Review and the way forward—Brendan Bain, University Hospital of the West Indies, Jamaica

4:00 pm: End of Day 4