Supplemental Figure 9: Scatterplots of ASVs/OTUs found in each sample between the different sequence processing methods on the Exercise dataset.

Pairwise scatterplots of the number of ASVs/OTUs found in each biological sample with two different sequence processing methods on each axis. The R value represents the rho correlation between the two different processing methods.