

Supplementary Fig. S1: EEG analyses of the Y112X/N163D patient when she was 24 years old. EEGs show a slow background activity, with bilateral spike and spike and wave discharges. No aggravation of these signals was detected after 4 years (see Fig. 1A).