

Fig. S2. An increased prevalence of type IIx fibers were apparent in GTN muscles of Snell dwarf mice following plantarflexion SSC-training. Muscle sections were analyzed by immunofluorescence staining for laminin (green) and multiple MHC isoforms - I (blue), IIa (red), IIb (green), and IIx (negative for staining). Scale bar = 50 μ m.