Supplementary Figure 8: Color discrimination

Summary graphs of Universal Colour Discrimination Test (UCDT) for participants P8 (A), P9 (B), P10 (C) and P10 (D). The y-axis represents the change in ellipse area from baseline. A positive value in the change of the ellipse area represents a worsening of color discrimination. The time point at which the UCDT was performed is indicated by the x-axis.