

Supplementary Data

SUPPLEMENTARY FIG. S1. Results of the within-group correlations for the trauma-control group. The color-coded matrix summarizes the total number of white matter voxels with significant correlations between the seven diffusion metrics (horizontal) and 10 neuropsychological measures (vertical) in the TBSS analyses. The cold colors indicate negative correlations, whereas the warm colors indicate positive correlations. TBSS, tract-based spatial statistics.