

Data Sharing Statement

Perkins GD, Mistry D, Gates S; Breathe Collaborators. Effect of protocolized weaning with early extubation to noninvasive ventilation vs invasive weaning on time to liberation from mechanical ventilation among patients with respiratory failure: the Breathe randomized clinical trial. JAMA. doi:10.1001/jama.2018.13763

Data

Data available: Yes

Data types: Deidentified participant data

How to access data: breathe@warwick.ac.uk

When available: With publication

Supporting Documents

Document types: None

Additional Information

Who can access the data: We shall make data available to the scientific community with as few restrictions as feasible, while retaining exclusive use until the publication of major outputs.

T types of analyses: For any purpose

Mechanisms of data availability: Requests should be directed to breathe@warwick.ac.uk. To gain access, data requestors will need to sign a data access agreement.

Any additional restrictions: All data use must comply with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

This supplementary material has been provided by the authors to give readers additional information about their work.