

Figure S1. Average FT-Raman spectra of P. putida grown in the absence and presence of different SPs and metabolizing glucose (upper panel) or phenanthrene (lower panel) as the sole energy and C-source. The spectra were normalized using the standard normal variate transformation (see main text).