

Figure S3. Average FTIR spectra of P. putida grown in the absence and presence of different SPs and metabolizing glucose (upper panel) or phenanthrene (lower panel) as the sole energy and C-source. The spectra were converted to 2nd derivatives and normalized using the standard normal variate transformation (see main text).