

Figure S7. Box plots of three inflammation cytokines. At all three time points, the Type 2 group generally had higher median for CRP, IL-6, and TNF-alpha than the Type 1 group. For each type, by comparing individually CRP, IL-6 and TNF-alpha, there is no statistically significant over the three collection times.