

Supplementary Material

Recommendations for services for people with living with chronic breathlessness in advanced disease: results of a transparent expert consultation

Lisa Jane Brighton, India Tunnard, Morag Farquhar, Sara Booth, Sophie Miller, Deokhee Yi, Wei Gao, Sabrina Bajwah, William D-C. Man, Charles C Reilly, Margaret Ogden, Sylvia Bailey, Colleen Ewart, Irene J Higginson, Matthew Maddocks

Supplementary Figure S1: Prompt Questions for group work booklets

Defining and delivering services	Integration into current practice	Measuring & monitoring services
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What are the core components of a holistic breathlessness service? • Which staff should lead and contribute to a holistic breathlessness service? • Who should be referred to holistic breathlessness services, and when? • What is the optimal contact time, and over what duration, for a holistic breathlessness service? • Where should a holistic breathlessness service be positioned and delivered? • What future research is needed around the definition and delivery of holistic breathlessness service? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Where should a holistic breathlessness service be based? • Which services should contribute to a holistic breathlessness service? • How should people be referred to a holistic breathlessness service? • How do we best raise awareness of a holistic breathlessness service? • What could help facilitate integration of holistic breathlessness services into current practice? • What future research is needed around integration of holistic breathlessness services into practice? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What is the ideal set of outcomes to measure for patients? • What is the ideal set of outcomes to measure for carers? • What is the ideal set of service-level variables to monitor? • What data will need to be collected to inform commissioning? • What could help facilitate measurement and monitoring of success? • What future research is needed around measurement and monitoring the success of holistic breathlessness services?

Supplementary Table S1: Professions/Roles of those invited to participate in the online survey (n=160)

Profession/Role	Invited
	n	(%)
Doctor (clinical)	61	37.4
Researcher	65	39.8
Physiotherapist	12	7.4
Patient/Carer representative	16	10
Role in charitable organisation	9	5.5
Nurse	11	6.7
Commissioner	5	3
Occupational Therapist	1	0.6
Psychologist	5	3
Other	10	6.1

Note: potential participants could be assigned more than one profession/role