

Supplementary Figure 1. Edge effect on a single location. The red region (indicated by the black arrow) had the following thresholds determined by the three tests with full threshold staircase: 7 dB, 19 dB, 19 dB. This sequence yielded a final average of 15 dB. This was lower than the threshold predicted by the structure – function model (28 dB).