

Supplemental Figure 1. Preserved total immune cell numbers in aged naïve spleens. Digested single cell suspensions from young and aged spleens were gated on alive, signal cells that are CD45+. Data are from one representative of three independent experiments. Data was analyzed for statistical significance using a two tailed T-test n=3-4 mice per group, error bars =+SEM.