

Panel 1: Description of the intervention and standard care delivered by Lady Health Workers

	Intervention Clusters	Control Clusters
Deliver basic reproductive maternal, newborn, child health education messaging (i.e., family planning, nutrition awareness education)	Yes	Yes
Promote healthy behaviour (i.e., encourage appropriate breastfeeding and complementary feeding behaviour, discuss fundamentals of safe water, sanitations, and hygiene practice)	Yes	Yes
Basic curative care (i.e., oral rehydration salts for children with diarrhea)	Yes	Yes
Identify neonatal danger signs and make referrals	Yes	Yes
Equipped with a hand-held, battery operated scale to weigh newborns	Yes	No
Provision of clean delivery kit to pregnant women	Yes	No
Provision of chlorhexidine to pregnant women alongside education on how it should be applied to newborn's umbilicus	Yes	No
Provision of sunflower oil emollient to pregnant women alongside education on newborn massage	Yes	No
Improved thermal care (i.e., detection of hyper- and hypothermia, reflective blanket and heat pack for warming)	Yes	No