

Figure S2 Measuring models fit in TREEMIX.  $m$  is the number of added migration events,  $f$  the fraction of the variance in relatedness between populations that is accounted for by the models.

