

Additional file 3: Figure S3. The estimated likelihood (lkhd) of ARS on the bivariate response surfaces represented by combinations of the predictors in the environmental NPMR model. Gray areas correspond to regions of the predictor space with non-existent combinations or where there was insufficient data for the model to produce an estimate based on the required minimum neighborhood size ($n_{min} < 23.41$).