
Interview guide

- Tell us your name and also something about your relationship to the person with heart failure close to you...
 - Can you tell us about your everyday life as a family member of someone with heart failure?
 - What do you think supporting someone might involve?
 - Do you have any experience in providing practical support for your family member?
 - Do you have any experience in providing information to support your family member?
 - Do you have any experience in strengthening or confirming your family member in what is said or done?
 - Is giving emotional support something that you have experience of?
 - Has your role as an informal carer changed over time?
 - What do you do in everyday life to stay healthy/take care of yourself?
 - What do you imagine internet technology could support you with in your daily life as a family member of someone with heart failure?
-