We formally tested the stability of our estimates from 1000 repetitions by extending the number of repetitions to 2000.
We did this formal test for the lifespan variation estiamtes at age 0 by year, sex and deprivation quintile only.
The standard deviation of the Monte Carlo sample flat lined before 1000 repetitions and the additional accuracy gained after 10000 repetitions was minimal.