

Additional file 2 Distribution of methylated cytosines in the P35S region.

Dot plot overview of the fate of all analysed cytosines in each individually sequenced read during the β -estradiol treatment of the three analysed lines. Colour-coded spots depict the position of methylated cytosines in various sequence contexts. The lowest line indicates cytosine sequence contexts in the individual positions.