

Supplemental Figure 2. Serum IL-6 following A. fumigatus infection. Wildtype or ficolin KO mice were intranasally inoculated with 2×10^7 A. fumigatus conidia and control mice received PBS. Serum samples were obtained 24 hours post-infection and concentration of IL-6 in serum was determined by ELISA. Results are obtained from one experiment