

Figure S1: 'Gamma curves' describing the relationship between the signal input to a pixel(s), V_{in} , and its relative luminance for the displays of each smartphone. The 'ideal' relationship, that with a gamma of 2.2, specified for Android devices (green line) is shown for reference.

