

Figure S2. Probability that PIGF testing in women presenting with preeclampsia compared to current practice is cost-effective for a range of values of willingness to pay for a maternal adverse event prevented.