

Title: Supplementary Movie 1.

Description: In the Sequential Metacontrast paradigm (SQM), a central line is followed by pairs of flanking lines presented one after the other further and further away from the center. A percept of two moving streams diverging from the center is elicited. The central line is invisible because it is masked by the following lines.