

Supplementary Figure 1: Storage versus Quality of Medicines. White represents the mean storage temperature of the samples during collection in °C and grey represents relative humidity in percent.

