

Additional file 4. PMCA3 protein levels in neuronal cultures following IL-1 β treatment.

The graph (left panel) shows the quantification of the band intensity in the western blot (right panel; 2 representative lanes per group). Total protein was used to normalize for experimental variations. Values represent mean \pm SEM. There were no significant differences by independent Student's t-test.