

- Safe, no significant impact if proper technique and surveillance granted by dedicated breast imaging specialist
- Safe, but patient well informed about the possibility of more second level exams
- Unsafe
- Absolutely safe

