

Supplementary Item 6: Between-measurement variation (Non offset data) per horse and per path over all measurements. Here for the parameters MinDiff head, MinDiff withers and MinDiff pelvis. These data enable the evaluation of the differences between and within horses (relatively small individual boxes compared to the more substantial difference between the different boxplots).

