Additional Information

Explanation for why data not available: Bristol-Myers Squibb will honor legitimate requests for our clinical trial data from qualified researchers. We will share clinical trial data from our in-scope Phase I-IV interventional trials in patients that have completed on or after January 1, 2008. This includes de-identified patient-level and study-level clinical trial data, full clinical study reports and protocols from clinical trials conducted in patients for medicines and indications approved in the U.S. and/or EU. Sharing is subject to protection of patient privacy and respect for the patient's informed consent.
