

SUPPLEMENTARY FIG. S5. Illustration of Fe/S synthesis machinery in mammals. This figure was adapted from Lill et al. (25). X-S represents the sulfur-containing moiety exported from the mitochondria, and sulfur and iron atoms are represented in yellow and red, respectively. Scaffold proteins are shown in green and proteins involved in electron transport in blue. Fe/S, iron-sulfur cluster.