

Figure S1. The clinical implication of a high BUN/creatinine ratio at discharge may differ according to the response to decongestion therapy as indicated by the degree of hemoconcentration.

