

Figure A1. The feature maps of DEU. Both T2W and T1W images are the input of network. The feature maps of “encoder part” are the output from the first encoder block. The feature map of “decoder part” is the output of the last decoder part. The feature map of “fused feature” show the feature after fusing encoder part and decoder part features.