

Figure S4: Control experiments related to Fig. 4, part 2

LecB was applied basolaterally to polarized MDCK cells grown on transwell filters. After fixation, endogenous galectin-3 (green), β 1-integrin (red), and nuclei (blue) were stained. Representative confocal sections (x-y sections) from a z-level 3 μ m above the transwell filter surface are displayed.